ADMINISTRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION - From 21 July, we are offering both the Common cup and intinction as a trial over the summer holidays. Knowing some people will be anxious about this move, I did a quick literature search. There is not much documented evidence specifically about Covid, but the research that has been done shows little evidence of risk of transmission of infection from sharing the Common Cup.

This first paper was from June 2020 and cited knowledge prior to that time. To read the full document click here

The following paper discussed return to the Common Cup in March 2022. They reiterate Covid's route of transmission is airborne, and people are at much higher risk because they are no longer wearing face masks than they are from sharing the chalice. To read the full document Click here

To minimise the risk our chalice assistants are taught to wash / gel their hands before administering Communion and will resume the practice of 'wiping and rotating' the chalice after each person has consumed. We can all play our part by being considerate towards one another by staying home if we are unwell or have respiratory symptoms or by just receiving the bread that week.

We will watch and see what the next few weeks bring, and it is our intention that we will move to one option only once we see whether intinction or the Common Cup is most popular. During the transition, we will continue to use wafers, however, if we move to receiving the Common Cup, we will also return to having a single gluten free loaf that can be shared with everyone. The most important thing to remember is that you do what you feel comfortable with and remember that in the Anglican church, communicating in either kind, just bread or just wine, is considered full communion so you need not share the cup if you feel uneasy about doing so. If you have questions about any aspect of this, please talk to Beth or me, Shan.

COULD YOU HELP?

BROOMGROVE NURSING HOME LOOKING FOR ACTIVITIES

The Activities Team at Broomgrove Nursing Home has asked if there is anyone - or a group - who might be willing to go to the home on a one-off basis, to give a travel talk, a picture presentation, some music or reading/drama, in fact, anything which would occupy residents for a session of one hour approx. MarksThree has visited recently and performed to a receptive audience. If this is something you might be able to do, have a word with Rosalind Rogerson, or contact the Activities Team directly at activities@broomgrove-trust.co.uk.

THE ENVIRONMENT:

AUGUST ECO TIP

This year, we will be supporting the Eco Tip calendar provided by Rocha, who gave us our Gold Eco Church Award last year, follow along for a new tip every month:

Assist local wildlife during very hot weather. Provide hedgehogs with hedgehog biscuits (available at many pet stores and online) or dog biscuits (small/ crumbed) as their prey of slugs, snails and worms diminishes, and ensure a safe exit for them and other small mammals if you have a garden pond. Help garden birds by maintaining a filled bird bath and supplying supplementary food including black sunflower seeds, pinhead oatmeal, soaked sultanas, raisins, currants, mealworms, waxworms, and a nutritious seed mixture, when natural supplies become scarce.
