

Watching Winter turn to Spring in Endcliffe Park – daffodils ... cherry blossom ... glossy lime green leaves on trees. So familiar when everything else is so different. Family is hundreds ... thousands ... of miles away and now seems even further. But your world, God, greets us each day with sunshine and birdsong, and our Parish family holds us close in a big, virtual hug.