Welcome as we gather to worship and celebrate the first Sunday after Trinity.

This week has been carers week, an annual campaign to raise awareness about the thousands of unpaid individuals of all ages, who face the challenge of looking after a family member, friend or neighbour who is ill, frail or has a disability, mental health problem or addiction. The role these carers play is a vital one, and without them, many vulnerable people would not have the same quality of life.

Today's service is an opportunity for us to think about the people who hold a caring role in our church and our wider community, to pray for them, and consider how we can best support them.

As the singing bowl sounds and we light our candle, you may like to bring to mind someone you know who is an unpaid carer, and to hold them in Christ's presence as well as your own thoughts during the service.
